Dedication

James Prince 1948-1965

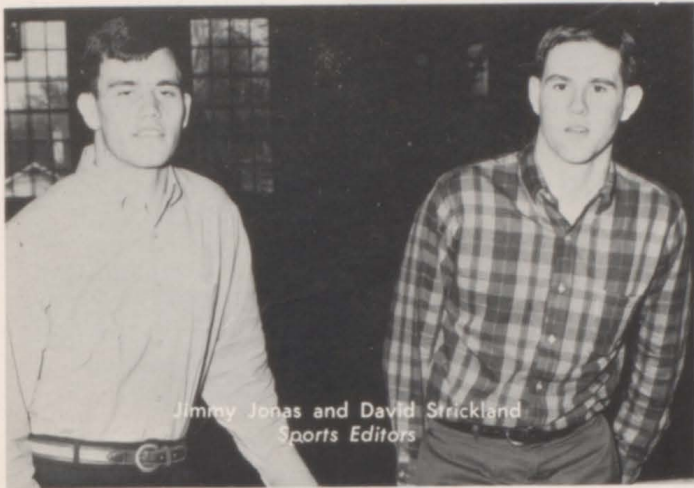

This edition of "The Golden Torch" is dedicated to the memory of James Prince, a member of the class of 1966.

His smile, his wit, and his friendly ways made an impression on all of us that will long be remembered.

JAMES G. DOUGLAS
Superintendent

To the students of Peabody High School

We, the faculty, give to you the solemn charge to pursue your goals with hungry fervor. Let the happiness of success overcome the disappointment of failure. Strive to improve and ready yourselves for the big opportunities. Have the determination to do things you should do, and stop doing the things you should not. Take time to enjoy life, and make living prosperous by giving, as well as receiving.

"Future Homemakers of America"

BEVERLY BUFORD, President

PEGGY HAMILTON, Secretary

ANN NIX, Parliamentarian

KATHY BRASFIELD, Historian

Girls in Sophomore home economics study the use of equipment, supplies, and methods as they learn to wash, dry, and iron correctly. Shiela Morgan, Linda Hendrix, Pat Treadwell, Nancy Joyce, Marie Bomar and Jean McKinley seem real interested.

Chapter FHA Advisers Mrs. Anne Fairless and Mrs. Agnes Evans are shown reviewing teaching aids which will be used in their classes during the year.

1965-66 Freshman FHA members receive their formal Future Homemakers of America certificate cards. Those shown on stage are Paula King, Shirley Lowery, Beverly Warren, and Denise Howell. Beverly Buford, Chapter President and Donna Allen, Chapter Treasurer are making the presentation.

CAROLYN STEWART, Reporter

CATHY HICKS, Song Leader

Individuality Counts, one of the National Projects, is being interpreted with a life size paper doll as plans were being made for a chapter program. Sandra Smith, Kay Howell, Marilyn Markham, and Donna Morgan approve.

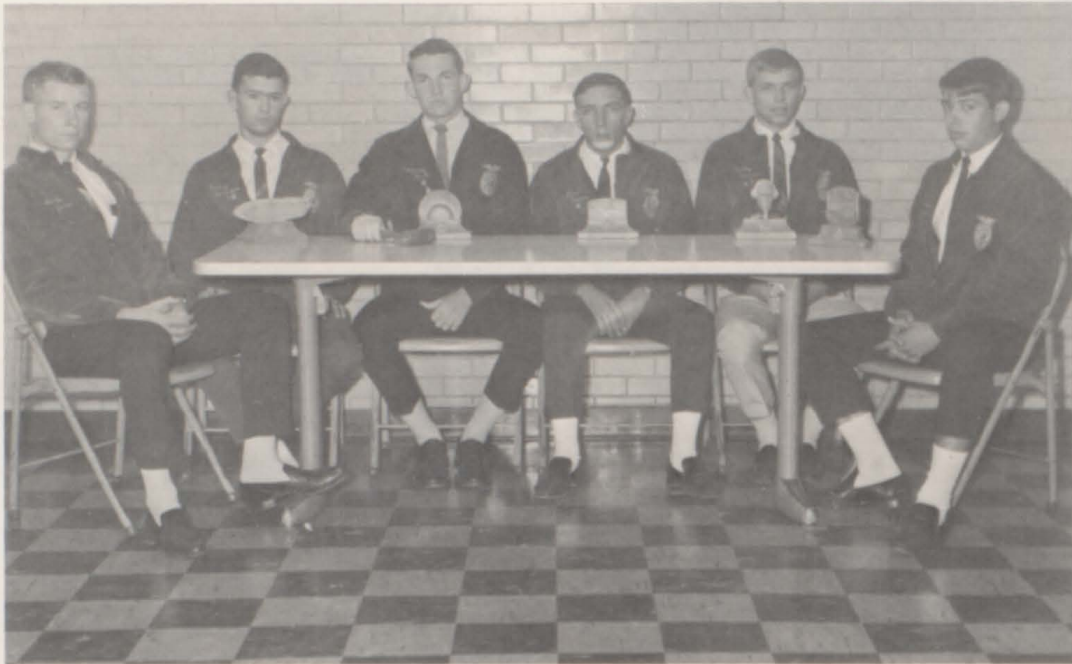

When Coach Jarvis was "laid up" in the hospital for a few days this year both experienced and new Candy Strippers came at beckon call to get him back on his feet. Who could ask for more? From left to right are Paulette Taylor, Ann Love, Nancy Knox, Ann Nix, and Cathy Hicks.
