My future is an open meadow.
It has no fences, no boundaries.
Spring flowers brighten the pathways,
Clover softens my footsteps.
But I must be wary
Underneath the mask of beauty
May lie thorns and sharp rocks,
Obstacles to delay my journey.

Please, friend,
Come share my meadow,
Come share my tomorrow.

Emily Patterson

Dedication

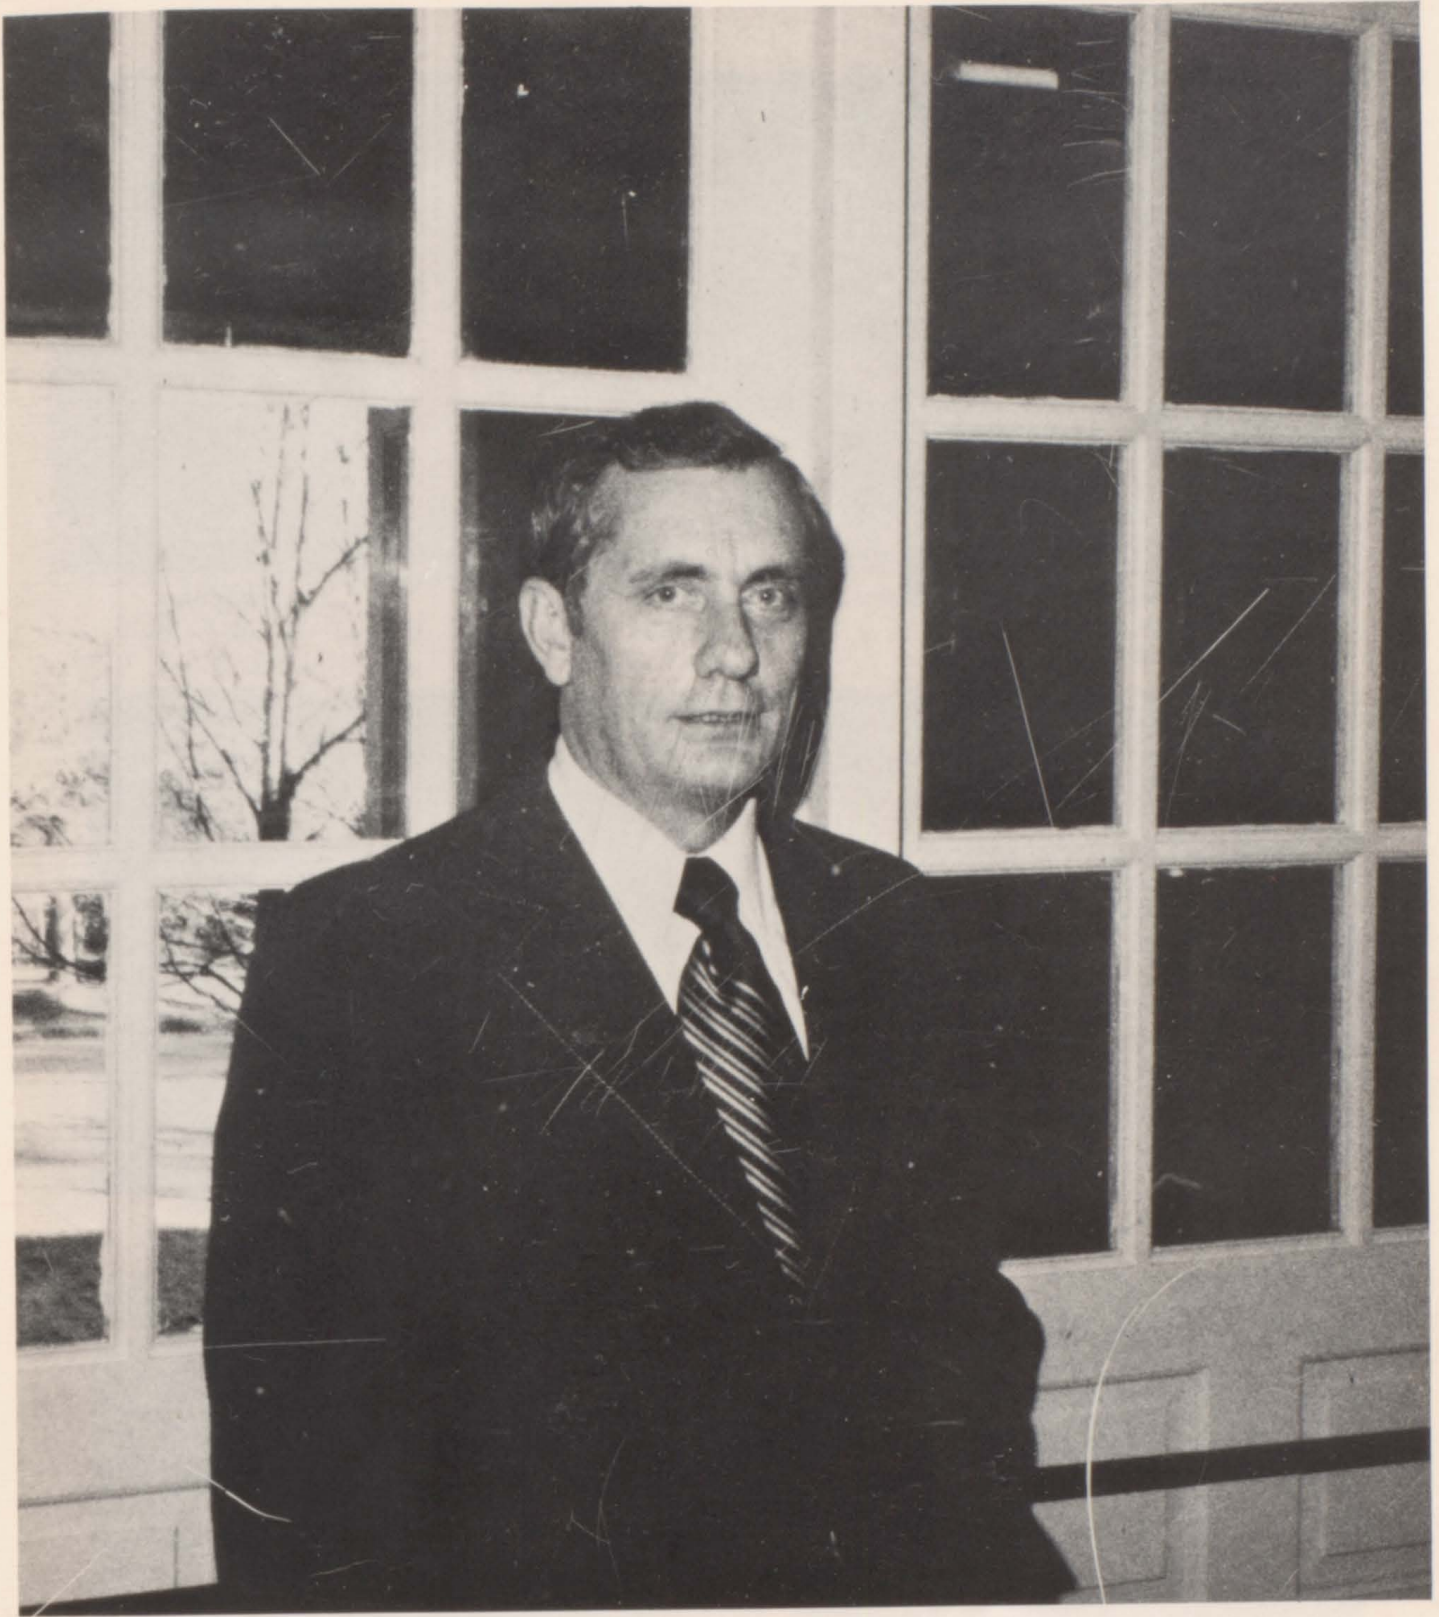

MRS. EVELYN LOWERY

A dimpled smile,
a friendly hello,
an outstretched hand.

Soul brushes against soul
and once more
the concern of a friend brightens a day.

Thank you, MRS. LOWERY,
for bridging the gap.

Half-time!!

Look, Joy, I found it!!!

Mrs. Williams, I think I've lost something!!

Tim, you're so mean to me.

1975 Senior Class History

We first entered these hallowed halls of learning in the fall of 1969. We rocked through six years at 'Ole Peabody' - six very precious and memorable years. Together we experienced victory, suffered defeat, shared laughter and nurtured tears.

The seventh and eighth grades were spent learning about school and parties and the opposite sex. Amid paper wad and eraser fights we prepared ourselves for the big step into high school life.

As freshmen and sophomores, some of us chose athletics. Charlotte, Vickie, Diane, Debbie, Cindy, Joy, Barbara, Lynn, Dago, Tim, Carter, Jesse, David, Bear, William, Marty, and Steve played basketball. Pam was the manager of the girls' team. Carol was cheerleader. Charles, Jessie, Bear, Tony, Carter, Dickey, Tim D., Tim, C., Jimmy, Keith, Bobby, Steve R., Dago, Steve K., Doug, William, Larry, and Richie became Tide gridders. Tim, Bear, Tony and Lee were on the track team. Others, such as Nancy, Linda, Charles, Tony, Cindy, Terry, William, Steve, John, Kathy P., Alfred, Patricia, Keith, Angela, Missy, Joy, Cecile and Richie joined the Band of Gold. Later, Crystal, Kathy H., and Bill also joined the band.

And then we were juniors. We got our rings. We planned the Junior-Senior banquet. We partied. Steve, Dago, Doug, Bear, Jesse, and Tim played baseball. Carmen and Babs joined the cheerleading squad. We had a blast!

Seniors, at last. Our twelfth year has been one of excitement and confusion. We've planned for the future and we've looked into the past. Some of us have attained great honors; some have achieved personal goals. Together we formed the SENIORS of '75. TOGETHER we made it happen!!!
